

State of Alaska
FY2008 Governor's Operating Budget

Department of Law
Criminal Appeals/Special Litigation Component
Component Budget Summary

Component: Criminal Appeals/Special Litigation ComponentContribution to Department's Mission

This component contributes to the Department's mission by prosecuting and convicting criminal offenders in specialized areas of the law, and by upholding those convictions on appeal.

Core Services

(A) The Office of Special Prosecutions and Appeals (OSPA) represents the state in all felony appellate proceedings challenging convictions obtained in the trial courts, and handles most state and federal post-conviction and habeas corpus proceedings. These post-trial procedures are constitutionally required; when convicted criminals file such actions the state must respond. Without these functions, the efforts of criminal justice agencies to detect and punish crime through investigation, trial, and conviction would be nullified. OSPA also handles civil litigation challenging statutes related to criminal justice, such as sex offender registration and DNA databank.

(B) OSPA prosecutes economic and other complex crimes. In addition to filing criminal charges and conducting criminal trials, this office also gives day-to-day advice to special "white collar" investigation units. These prosecution services protect private investors, small businesses, and government agencies that are the victims of fraud or other wrongdoing. OSPA also handles cases involving criminal charges against police officers, or cases in which the local District Attorney's office has some kind of conflict with handling the case.

(C) OSPA prosecutes environmental crimes through a reimbursable services agreement with the Department of Environmental Conservation. These prosecution services protect the state's air and water quality by providing advice and assistance to state environmental investigators and by prosecuting appropriate criminal cases.

(D) OSPA prosecutes welfare cheaters through a reimbursable services agreement with the Department of Health and Social Services. These prosecution services protect the state's welfare system.

(E) Through a reimbursable services agreement with the Department of Revenue, OSPA prosecutes cases against individuals who fraudulently apply for a Permanent Fund Dividend (PFD). These prosecution efforts protect the integrity of the PFD program.

(F) OSPA prosecutes medical providers who cheat the Medicaid system, through a federal grant and matching state general funds. The unit can institute criminal prosecution for fraud or civil actions for overpayments. In addition, the unit is responsible for investigating and prosecuting abuse of patients in Medicaid-funded facilities.

(G) OSPA prosecutes selected fish and game cases, that are significant or have statewide importance.

(H) OSPA prosecutes criminal child support enforcement matters through a reimbursable services agreement from the Department of Revenue.

(I) OSPA prosecutes bootlegging and alcohol interdiction cases in Anchorage, Bethel, Nome and Kotzebue, and provides legal advice during investigations. Funding is through a reimbursable services agreement with Department of Public Safety, through a federal grant.

(J) OSPA works with the Alaska State Troopers "cold case" homicide unit to investigate and prosecute old, uncharged cases.

(K) OSPA houses the Division's "Rural Prosecution Unit." This is a federally funded unit whose job it is to support prosecution in rural Alaska. The attorneys and support staff in this unit work state-wide as needed to assist rural offices due to staffing shortages or increased caseloads.

(L) OSPA provides expertise and training state-wide in the area of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault. This position also handles complex and high-profile prosecutions in this area.
